PLAN TO REHABILITATE CHINA. Hong Kong Merchant Suggests the Building of Railroads. A New York dispatch says; H. T. Bosman of Hong Kong, accompanied by his wife and servants, is in the city. At home Mr. Bosman is better known as Mr. Ho Tung, and he is one of the leading merchants of his native city, as well as one of its most extensive property owners. Mr. Bosman, though an oriental, is a British subject, and a justice of the peace in his majesty's service. He is deeply interested in the trend of events politically in the far east. To a reporter in an interview he said: "I believe that this is the golden opportunity for the introduction of western ideas into the middle kingdom, and that the apparent disagreement of the powers on Directly on the ocean front. Generally modern- the amount of indemnity to be paid for the Boxer disturbances should lead to some sort of compromise, having for its object the development of undeveloped Asia, rather than the levying of a mere mone-tary fine, which could be raised by addi-tional taxation, and in the end perhaps leave the real situation of the country un-changed. I have a plan in my own mind which I think is worthy of the attention of the diplomats, because I believe it would be a civilizing influence. It is this:

Let the powers agree upon the amount of indemnity to be paid, and then contract among themselves and with the Pekin government that the entire sum, say $200-000,000, shall be used for building railroads and for other internal improvements in China, under the joint control of the powers, to be operated by them until the full amount of the investment is returned and until China is in a position to become, by purchase, the sole owner of the improvements.

"Railroads will do more to enlarge the perspective of the Chinese than any other one agency. They will cause the people of the interior to travel and to acquire that breadth of view which comes from contact with the world. Now, China is in great need of railroads, while the rest of the world is clamoring for broader trade facilities. The situation seems to have been created for reciprocal negotiations along a certain line.

"Raifroads could be built by the powers on the basis of a 3 or 4 per cent cumulative, interest-bearing indemnity bond un-In after years a chance could be given to China to acquire the properties out of the net earnings, after the indemnity had been provided for. Any surplus—and I believe there would be a surplus—could be used to develop more railroads. By that time the Chinese problem would have been solved." KWANG SU MUST RETURN. Japan Makes a Formal Demand on Chinese Ruler.

A dispatch from Pekin yesterday says. Komours Yutaro, the Japanese minister, accompanied by Gen. Yamaguchi, the Japanese commander, recently called upon Prince Ching and notified him that the return of Emperor Kwang Su to Pekin was urgently desired. Prince Ching was informed that the emperor's wishes would be respected by the foreign troops, and that every courtesy would be shown him. It was pointed out to the Chinese plenipotentiary that the emperor's return was of the highest possible importance as affecting the maintenance of the integrity of the Chinese empire, and that he should come accompanied by every available soldier, by at least 20,000 men if possible. These troops, it was further contended These troops, it was further contended by the Japanese minister, must be sent into Manchuria, as the Russians reported dis-turbances there, and it was not right that the task of quelling the trouble should be thrown upon the shoulders of one nation. Finally Prince Ching was assured that if the 29,000 Chinese troops could not sup-press the disorders in Manchuria, other powers would send an international force to co-operate with China, which all the

No reply having been received to this communication, Li Hung Chang was today notified to the same effect, and told that Emperor Kwang Su must give an immediate answer.

The preparations which the Japanese here are making for an early start indicate that they still expect war between Russia and Japan. Vessels arriving at Taku from Na-gasaki report the mobilization of the Jap-anese fleet and the continuance of preparations on board ship for the anticipated to co-operate with China, which all the powers regarded as a friendly power.

Prince Ching says all his reports go to show that the missionary statements regarding a rebellion in Mongolia are not supported by the facts. Neither does he believe that the rebellion of Gen. Tung Fu Hsiang amounts to much. struggle. "It is the object of certain elements," he asserts, "to make it seem that China is in a condition of constant broil, rendering it unsafe for the foreign troops to be withdrawn. Those who have this in view will magnify a village quarrel into a big rebellion. The missionaries, naturally timid, take these reports in good faith." take these reports in good faith.' Big Fire at Sturtevant Works.
